

REMARKS

The OA has been received and the contents and arguments made by the Examiner have been carefully noted. Applicant has amended the pending claims to put the application into condition for allowance in compliance with page 3 of the OA, section "Allowable Subject Matter." This is done without prejudice or disclaimer and fully preserving Applicant's right to claim additional matter not explicitly disclaimed herein, in a child application of this application.

Conclusion

Applicant believes that this response and amendment is fully responsive to the OA and places the application into condition for allowance. Applicant respectfully requests consideration for allowance. Please feel free to contact the undersigned attorney for any questions.

Respectfully submitted,
